DESIDERATA

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. * Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. * Keep interested in your own career, however humble, it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. * Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. * Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. * You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. * Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with soul. * With all its shame, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

We came here with naked innocence and will go with open minds, intellect, and many memories,

leaving our nakedness behind.

I am the shepherd and these are my sheep.

If she doesn't get away from him . . .

Who is running this place anyway?

Rrrip!!!

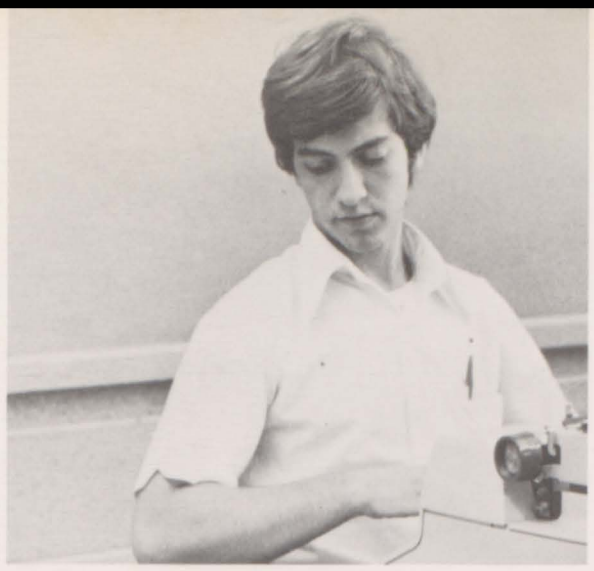

Come on fellas, my mommy made me wear it.

We like each other.

I'm always hungry until I come in here.

Does that say sex?

That DOES say sex!

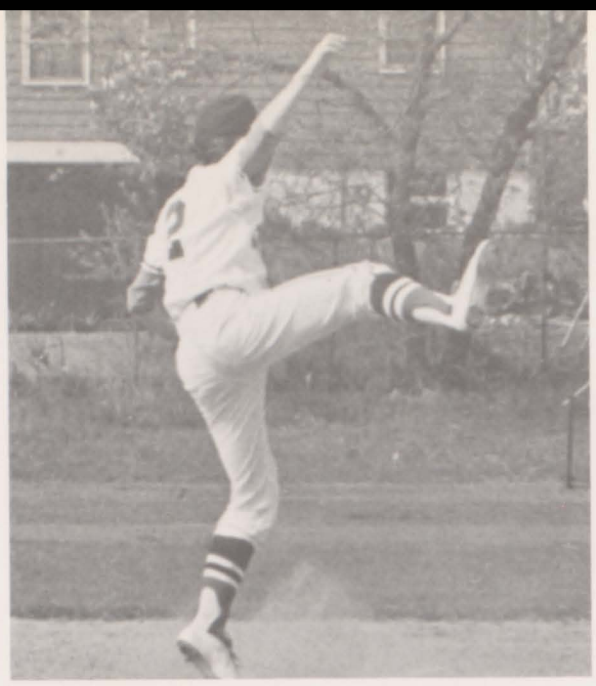

They'll never know what I put in it.

Quit blowing bubbles and play the game.

Lucky Lindy in the 4th.

Those dancing lessons really paid off.

Where did the band go?

I think my zipper is caught.

. . . each moment has its own beauty;
it beholds every hour a picture which was never seen before and which shall never be seen again . . .

On commencement I wish each member of the graduating class of 1975 a truly new and exciting beginning. It is my hope that the educational and vocational plans which you have made here will be fully realized in the coming years. I would also hope that as the years pass you will look back on your experiences at Coventry High School as stimulating, enjoyable and memorable. May faith, courage and fortitude be yours in attaining your future goals.

Best wishes,

James A. DiPrete

James A. DiPrete

We have shared experiences and tasks but now we have to approach and determine our goals individually. For some, stepping out will mean additional responsibilities and freedoms and for others it will mean totally new experiences.

Our school experiences have provided a basis upon which we can add.

We have grown and changed together and now we must continue this process as individuals. Through our studies we have acquired knowledge enabling us to make our own decisions.

Looking at today's situation we can see how others before us ignored past events and failed to forsee future consequences. By realizing the mistakes of our troubled society we can hopefully work toward common goals which will provide for a more positive future.

I want to wish each of you success and happiness in attaining the goals you have set for yourselves and may God take care of you all.

Love,

Gail L. Mitchell

CLASS HISTORY

We walked up each step shakily, across the cement, and through the doors. Spellbound, we stood and stared at the big brick walls of CHS. It was a scary experience entering CHS for the first time in September of 1971.

Once we were used to the new environment, we plunged right into our plans for a Christmas Dance with the help of Miss Stravato, our class advisor. We felt proud of this success so we decided to try something new; a Slave Day. It would have been good if it hadn't flopped. But we won out on a fantastic Freshman Dance. Having had great achievement, we were ready to move on to our Sophomore year.

This time, as Sophomores, we weren't quite as brave or as enthusiastic about climbing those steps. The only thing which resulted was a Casino Weekend instead of a Sophomore Dance. Aside from the courageous efforts of Mrs. Gendron, class advisor, and help from the freshman class, the Casino was a smashing . . . unsuccess. So we climbed up the school steps as Juniors.

Getting a bit big headed, we were ready to take on anything and Mrs. Cyr was willing to take the challenge. So we started the year with bobby socks and saddle shoes and good old greaser days to accompany the traditional Thanksgiving Football Pep Rally. The whole school boogied to the sounds of "Rock around the Clock" and "Go, Team, Go" on that day.

After this great and unforgettable event came the class rings. We felt real cool wearing our class rings and we let everyone know about it. But the effect of the rings soon wore off.

Now it was time for something big; really big. "We May Never Pass This Way Again", was the appropriate theme for our Junior Prom. The climax of this lovely evening was the crowning of Miss Kathy Cooper as our very own Prom Queen. Everyone left the prom wearing a huge smile.

But then came that special day . . . Class Day. When Steve Ferrucci handed Mark Crossley the gavel, and we changed our rings around thus, becoming the new official seniors. It was now our turn to hang around at the end of the corridors.

1974 brought about the beginning of our senior year when Aimee Petterson became Homecoming Queen, the first from the Class of '75.

Four springs and four summers are gone now, cartwheels turned to car wheels through the town. Happy memories of days gone by that we all shared at Coventry High. Teenage dances were so much fun, all the sports we lost and won. Meetings in the hallways between each class, the exams that we almost didn't pass. High school Pep Rallies and class day filled with laughter all the way. Graduation will soon be here as we near the closing year. But our hearts will cry the day we say good-bye . . . to Good Ol'd Coventry High.

Four Septembers of walking up the steps to CHS, each year having a more confident image. But now the time has come to descend those steps. Each of us leaving with a more confident, more satisfied, more intelligent outlook than when we entered.

"LOOK OUT WORLD, HERE WE COME!!!"

IN MEMORY Of
DAVID SHIELDS

Some famous people started like this.

Can you identify your assailant ma'am?

I'm what they call a stand in.

Mr. Fournier STREAKING!!!

Is it Fido or McKeen???

And they thought Da'Vinci was great!

Mr. Joseph E. Fournier

The Executive Board of the Yearbook Staff would like to dedicate the Knotty Oak '75 to Mr. Joseph E. Fournier. Mr. Fournier, as Yearbook advisor, was given the task of organizing and guiding all the work necessary in creating the yearbook. Because this was his first year as advisor, Mr. Fournier was largely unaware of the complexity of the job. Yet in spite of this, he did his utmost in advising us, in order to make the Knotty Oak '75 one of the best yearbooks of Coventry High. We, therefore, express our deepest gratitude to him for all his help, advice and encouragement throughout the year.

This year Coventry revived the spirit of school dances. The first dance was a Halloween Dance sponsored by the Student Council. It proved a tremendous success. It was soon followed by a Freshman-Sophomore Dance which also brought a large turnout. Class officers then got together to organize a Christmas Dance. At first ticket sales were slow and there was fear that the dance would be cancelled but the students pulled through and the dance held at Club 400 was simply terrific.

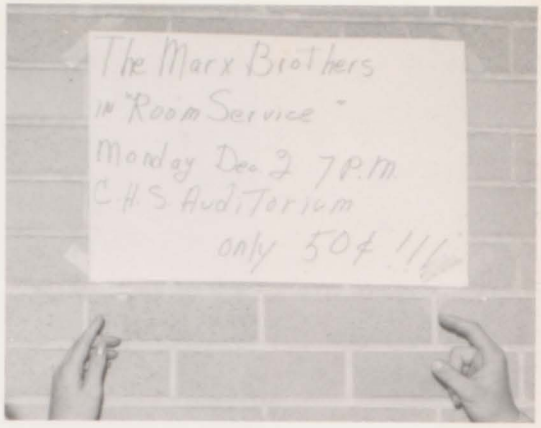

This year also marked the beginning of the school radio. WCHS started broadcasting and the lounge was provided with music. Mass communications and film-making brought a movie to Coventry in the form of "Room Service" with the Marx brothers for the low price of 50¢.

Student Council provided more entertainment by providing actors for the production "Twas the Night Before Christmas". And Chorus and Band had a share by providing singing and music to add to the Christmas spirit. Even gymnastics was involved and a Modern Dance Club was organized to put on shows.

Involved was the word for 1974-75 at CHS. Student Council grew enormous in size and its separate committees accomplished great recognition for our school. School dances, almost a thing of the past, became once more highlights of the year. Athletics, music, and movies provided more fun. School spirit is again bubbling to the top and let's hope the students keep it that way!
