Larchmont Remembered: RI's Catastrophic Shipwreck

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 6PM

Providence Journal columnist Daniel Harrington tells the harrowing tale of the Larchmont's tragic 1907 collision. Through eyewitness accounts, rare photographs, and a compelling narrative, New England's worst maritime disaster comes to life. Register at 397-3873.

Homeschool Club Presents: Elephants

TUESDAY,
SEPTEMBER 23,
1PM

Our monthly homeschool club for elementary-age students is back just in time for September! Jane from Animal Rescue RI takes a look at Earth's biggest land mammal: the elephant.

Farmer's Market (Rain or Shine!)

EVERY TUESDAY,
4 - 6 PM

Our weekly farmer's market continues until October! Pick up local vegetables, strawberries, honey, eggs, soap, bagels, flowers, pillows, wool, jewelry, and more. Enjoy live music every other week!

Second printing of Greene's community Cookbook available now!

Our cookbook features over 150 treasured recipes from Greene's community. Each copy is $20. All proceeds benefit the Greene Library Association. Add a mug with purchase for $5! Purchase two or more cookbooks and receive a mug FREE!

Fall Storytime Begins September 24

Registration is now open for children ages 2-5. Read seasonal stories, enjoy music, play with new friends, and make a craft together. Space is limited, so sign up at 397-3873.
