

LITERACY
VOLUNTEERS
OF KENT COUNTY

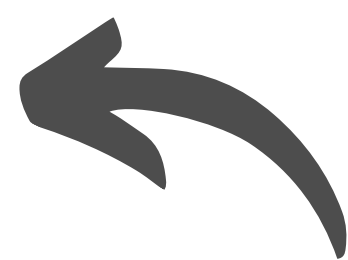

Fall 2026

Tutor Training Workshop

"Being a tutor gives me an opportunity to make a difference in my students' lives and to expand their knowledge in many areas."

About Us

Literacy Volunteers of Kent County (LVKC) is a non-profit literacy organization committed to empowering adults through literacy by training volunteers to tutor adults. Our program offers free one-to-one tutoring to adults whose limited English literacy skills prevent them from functioning effectively in their homes, workplaces, and communities.

Scan for more,
and apply as a Tutor!

Workshop Education

- Principles of Adult Learning
- Goal Setting and Case Study
- Language Learning Activities
- Teaching Techniques and Lesson Planning
- Awareness for Cultural Differences

DATES & TIMES

Four Sessions
September 14, 21, 28 &
October 26, 2026
5:30-8:00 PM

LOCATION

1675 Flat River Rd.
Coventry, RI
Coventry Community Learning Center
Room 125

REGISTRATION

Visit our website using the QR code or visit coventrylibrary.org/tutors
Contact Info: 401-822-9103
lvkc@coventrylibrary.org